

ON TRANSMISSION

Why does this happen? Why narrate, write? Why “create,” stimulate, thoughts (movements, mental, illusory)? Why believe to teach, transmit? Why believe that someone is learning? Enough questions! Answers through useless words! By proposing what is said as illusory and real, true and not true, pure and impure, contaminated and uncontaminated, and so on to all the dualities, we seek Oneness.

If a pure mind, connected with the Base, experiences Thusness and Emptiness and teaches Reality (neither the First, nor last) to another pure mind, the result is Transmission. No merit to be given to either of the “two” - we know that, due to the inconceivable Harmonic interaction, it is the Base that, as a Pure Source, contains the Intimate True relation between the “two,” memorizing that which IS, (Thusness), beyond apparent events in the world of phenomena: I write, you read. I, author of Useless Words, you, the reader. If the sea of phenomena, in its chaos, mixes the waters, it produces many disparate flavors. If the water is pure at the “Single Source” that we call Base, there is only one Flavor; always! Moment by Moment.

If a mind which is still FREE to experiment the illusory world of phenomena (erroneously called impure) listens, it reconducts everything to one reality, which individuals can interpret with their own selves, through their marvellous subjective freedom. The clear and perfect Base memorizes but keeps the two realities separate, out of respect for what the Absolute determined: every sentient being is free, not obligated to the “Source.”

The mind which draws from the Pure Source is the mind of Wisdom; it is centred and not contorted, it permits access to information in every moment of eternity to those who have the “EMPTY IDENTITY.” In Reality there is no arrival at a certain place at a certain time, because “neither this, nor that”; Reality lies in a single point and that point contains the other point, they are not and cannot be separated. Sentient beings are free to “believe themselves” to be separate, but who believes to be SEPARATE IN THE ABSOLUTE if NOT those who are freely distant from Reality? Every being and every level is to be respected. In different illusory times, we are this and other, one reality and another, in the course of innumerable existences. How to transmit in the world of phenomena? By studying, preparing, planning?

No! NEVER! I abandon myself to the Base of the Pure Source which prepares everything for me, as it does for all of you. In any case, Readers of Useless Words, you should know that those who “comprehend,” with or without me, will rise again everywhere and in any case in a “next” infinite, united forever, no longer separate. The Base Unites you and separates you from others (who still need to experiment). You will be a Single Body in the next Creation, nothing will be able to diminish you, on the contrary.

As I was saying, the knowledge in the Base is clear and pure, not even minimally touched by any circumstances, whether suffering, illness, death, the end of the world, a whole galaxy disappearing into black holes, the end of the Universe... The Base Remains Clear, it is Pure, it is the FIRST LAW OF THE ABSOLUTE.

One can access it because the evolutionary process has reached such a level that seekers, and only seekers, are permitted to discover what it is: the Thusness of the Base, the Perfect Secret of the Absolute of Freedom. This is self-delivery from the illusory, from phenomenon after phenomenon in the world of form. This is why Emptiness is form and form is Emptiness. All of this permits the future path, in which what has been explained until now is experience; (but for you again, it BECOMES the experience) and no longer words to interpret with the mind.

I believe that at this point, in explaining the term Transmission, it should be said that we are still only at the Glossary.

This book, “Useless Words,” begins with “Transmitting” the illusory value of words. At the end of the Glossary, the real book will begin. I believe that it is better this way - first we can agree on the useless values of words, then the “text” will send you searching for THUSNESS.

May All this not remain just words.
